International Students Admission Brochure

1. Introduction to Overseas Chinese University

Overseas Chinese University (OCU), founded in 1964 with the motto “honesty, sincerity, righteousness, and trustworthiness,” values interdisciplinary education and business. In central Taiwan, OCU is a technological university with a tradition of excellence. Research and the application of business and languages have been the center of OCU's development and strength. Tourism, catering services, and design are its most recent specialty areas. The ultimate goal of OCU is to actively develop school features and become the best private university of technology.

OCU not only maintains its good reputation and high status; it also actively develops both cross-strait and international communication, promotes students’ values and broadens their vision, and trains students to have professional skills, so they can enjoy learning and find employment easily.

OCU has become an internationalized school and continually makes efforts to support cooperative arrangements with famous schools in the United States of America, England, Japan, Austria, the Czech Republic, southeast Asia, and China. OCU has signed many international academic exchange and cooperation agreements implementing double degrees, teacher exchanges, student exchanges, English Summer Overseas Travel, academic exchanges, and seminars organized for various types of international exchange activities. These provide international students access to the school for further studies and increase multi-channel opportunities for international academic exchanges between teachers. The goals are to broaden students’ global perspectives, improve their language skills, and promote cultural exchanges and citizen diplomacy.

2. Eligibility

(1) Nationality

- a. International students shall be defined as individuals who have never held Republic of China (Taiwan) nationality nor have had Overseas Chinese student status.
- b. Individuals who hold foreign nationalities and have stayed abroad for more than 6 years (up to August 1, 2018) and who are qualified for one of the following situations are considered as international students.
 - (a) Individuals holding both foreign and R.O.C. nationalities but have never had household registration in Taiwan.
 - (b) Individuals holding foreign nationality and once had R.O.C. nationality but his or her household registration had been revoked by the Ministry of Interior for at least 8 years (up to August 1, 2018).
 - (c) The above individuals who have never held Overseas Chinese student status or studied in Taiwan nor have received a student status by University Entrance Committee for Overseas Chinese in the enrollment year.

Students who are recommended by foreign governments, organizations, or schools, according to educational cooperation agreements, are approved by the educational supervisory institutions, and have never held Republic of China (Taiwan) household registration.

- c. An applicant holding foreign nationality, concurrently holding a permanent residence status in Hong Kong or Macao, has never been registered as part of a household in Taiwan and, at the time of application, has continuously resided in Hong Kong, Macao, or another foreign country (overseas) for no less than 6 years is qualified to apply for admission under these regulations.
- d. An applicant who is a former citizen of Mainland China, currently holds a foreign nationality, has never been registered as part of a household in Taiwan and, at the time of application, has continuously resided overseas for no less than 6 years is qualified to apply for admission under these regulations.
- e. The term “overseas” as prescribed in Paragraph b, c, and d is limited to countries or regions other than Mainland China, Hong Kong, and Macau. The phrase “continuously reside overseas” means that an individual may stay in Taiwan for no more than a total of 120 days per calendar year. If the period of continuously living overseas does not conform to an academic year, the amount of time spent overseas shall be calculated as a maximum of 120 days. The only exceptions to this method of calculation are for those who fulfill one of the following requirements with written supported proof:

- (a) Attended overseas youth training courses organized by the Overseas Compatriot Affairs Council or technique training classes accredited by the Ministry of Education.
- (b) Attended a Mandarin Chinese language center at a university/college of which foreign student recruitment is approved by the Ministry, and to which the total length of stay is less than 2 years.
